Arizona Freedom Club PAC Announces Endorsement of Alex Kolodin for Arizona Secretary of State

PHOENIX, AZ — The Arizona Freedom Club PAC today announced its endorsement of State Representative Alex Kolodin for Arizona Secretary of State in the 2026 election.

As a constitutional attorney, conservative legislator, and longtime advocate for election integrity, Kolodin has built a reputation for fighting to protect transparency, accountability, and the rule of law in Arizona. Throughout his career, he has consistently defended constitutional freedoms, secure elections, and policies that put Arizona voters first.

“Alex Kolodin has been one of Arizona’s strongest voices for election integrity and constitutional government,” said Scot Mussi, Chairman of the Arizona Freedom Club PAC. “At a time when confidence in our institutions matters more than ever, Alex has demonstrated the conviction and leadership necessary to serve as Arizona’s next Secretary of State.”

The Arizona Freedom Club PAC cited several key priorities in its endorsement:

- Strengthening election integrity and restoring voter confidence.
- Increasing transparency and accountability in Arizona elections.
- Defending constitutional rights and the rule of law.
- Ensuring Arizona elections remain secure, fair, and efficiently administered.

Kolodin has also earned support from conservative leaders, grassroots activists, and elected officials across Arizona who share his commitment to protecting the integrity of the state’s election system.

“Arizona voters deserve a Secretary of State who will uphold the law, defend election integrity, and protect the voice of every legal voter,” Scot Mussi added. “Alex Kolodin has proven he is prepared to lead with principle and put Arizona first.”
